

At the Communion when there is a buriall.

The Introite.

Ike as the harte desireth the water brookes: so longeth my soule after the,

O God. My soule is a thirst for god, yea, even so.

Kyrie.

iii. L

Orde haue mercy vpon vs.

iii. Christ

there is a buriall.

Christ haue mercy vpon vs.

ii. Lord haue

mercy vpon vs.

The Collect.

i. Lord haue mercy vpon vs.

god & father of our lord Iesu Christ, who is the resurrection & the life: In whome whosoever beleueth shall lyue;
though he dye: And whosoever

O Mercyfull lyueth, & beleueth in him, shall not dye eternally: who also taught vs (by his apostle Paule) not to be sorre as me with out hope for them & slepe in him: We mekely beseeche & (O father) to raile vs fro the death of synne, vnto the life of righte-ousnes, that when we shall departe this life, we may slepe in him (as our hope is, this our brother doth) & at the generall resurrection in the last day, bothe we & this our brother departed, receauyng agayn our bodies, and risyng agayn in thy most gracious fa-uoure: may with all thine electe sayntes obtayne eternall ioy: Graunt this o lord god, by the meanes of our aduocate Iesus Christ, which with & holy ghost lyueth and reigneth one God for ever

S. i.

iii. Amen.
Sanctus